Help your community in a crisis

We can help you share your kindness with those who need it most

By becoming a community reserve volunteer, you will help your community get back on track in the event of a major local emergency. This may be particularly important right now and we are working with the authorities to support the Covid-19 response in the best possible way.

In the meantime, please sign up to join our growing network of volunteers, which we have been building since 2017, Anyone can become a community reserve volunteer; no specialist skills are required and quick training is provided at the scene. You just need to meet the criteria below.

I am 18 or above

I understand I will be called upon in a crisis

I understand I will only be asked to help in my local community.
